The Commissioners of Humboldt County have awarded a contract for putting in a fire system at Lovelock to cost $10,794, the system to be installed within 60 days.

Among the Sothern Pacific enonly four are now burning coal. The rest have been turned into oil

Injun Patterson is teaching the Shoshone bucks and squaws of Elko county the delight of waltz and the two step, and soon the ghost dance and the war dance will be things of the past among that tribe.

A Tamps, Florada, woman named Wagner, is offering a reward of $100 to anyone who will send her information which will lead to the recovery of her husband who is supposed to be somewhere in Nevada.

A Mrs Talcott, otherwise known as Dolly Russel, took a dose of James Price chloroform with suicidal intent. She was despondent because her lover Geo Garrison had left her. She received medical aid in time to save her life.-Reno Journal.

Peter Scott, one of the oldest residents of Elko county, and highly Floyd Campbell respected, has been arrested and charged with the murder of old man Henry, which occurred at Fort Hal- Mariam Lloyd leck some weeks ago. Scott emph- Lloyd Christian atically denies his guilt.

A. H. Brown, a mining man, and L. C. Branson, editor of Goldfield Sun, had an altercation last Saturday regarding an article in the Sun accusing Brown of jumping second month ending Dec 8. claims at Cuprite. Blows were Clara Peaslee struck, and Branson was nacking off Caddie Cook to secure a gnn when by standers | Eben Wheatly interfered and buieted the trouble. J. W. Christian

The barn, hay, outhouses etc on Washoe county ranch upon which W. W. Stephenson had a lease when he was recently murdared in San Francisco, were destroyed by fire last Saturday night. The fire is thought to have been of incendiary origin. The property was owned by Nick Prater, of Virginia City.

The Lovelock Tribune says Jos Marzen killed and shipped from his ranch last week a 2-year-old bog, of the Duroc breed, which weighed 607 pyunds, dressed. The hog's principal food was alfalfa, with a little bran for fattening. Marzen claims to have another hog that will dress 200 pounds heavier than the above They must have some great hoge or great prevarientors in the Lovelock country and possibly both.

Among Americans who are inspir ed by patro ic gentiment there can not fail to be a sense of gratification that the most important play in the history of the stage world is the work of an American. That play "Ben-Hur" -- the author General Lew Wallace. Since its origina production in New York Chy, the closing year of the last centure, it has been presented in many foreign countries and languages, and a have acknowledged its superiority The attention paid it by represents: ive personages of the world from Pope of Rome to the King of Eng land and the President of the Unit ed States has worked a healthy in fluence among all classes and to-day to attend a performance of "Bei. Hur" is considered a part of the education of the mang generation.

Usually one approaches a play made on a really powerful nove. with misgivings and regrets, but with "Ben Hur" this is diffierent; herein lies one of its great charms The incident of the falling tile, which led to the destruction of the House of Hur and the scattering of it members; the Prince of the 1805. house, enslaved and chained to the

The public of this wichnity will have an opportunity to witness Ben-Hur" at the Salt Labe Theatre Salt Lake City, Utah, Christmas week. It is to be enucted for six nights starting December 25th. Matinees are to be given on Christmas Day, Wednesday and Saturday. When "Ben-Hur" was presented in Salt Lake two years ago people from all parts of Utah, Idoho, gine now running west out of Sparks Colorado, Montana and California came to witness it and judging by the interest manifested in the forthcoming engagement, the same thing will accur right over again.
